

Castellated plates are specifically designed to simplify the preparation of the floor for the installation of heating pipes, which reduces the installation time. In addition the studded plates make it possible to confirm underfloor heating pipes in a quick and easy way. Available as non-insulated and isolated in 28 or 47mm.

