

Aluminium reflection foil consists a plastic webbing and an aluminum top layer. The foil reflects heat to the screed and displaces cold through the sub-floor, so it is an extremely effective heat conductor. The foil is designed for direct application under floor heating pipes and can be easily cut to size.